

London Health and Care Leaders Forum

Tuesday 11th March 2014, 12.00pm – 6.15pm, Venue: Dexter House, 2 Royal Mint Court, Tower Hill, London EC3N 4QN

Agenda

12.00pm to 12.45pm	Registration, lunch and networking	45 minutes
12.45pm to 12.55pm	Welcome and housekeeping Dr Phil Hammond	10 minutes
12.55pm to 1.15pm	London update Dr Anne Rainsberry, Regional Director, NHS England (London region) Martin Smith, Chief Executive, London Borough of Ealing and Chair, London Health Chief Officers Group	20 minutes
The health and care system through the lens of population health – what can we learn for London?
1.15pm to 2.10pm	Plenary session and Q&A Dr Philip Ozuah, Executive Vice President, Montefiore Health System (New York) Professor Yvonne Doyle, Regional Director (London region), Public Health England	55 minutes
2.10pm to 2.25pm	Break	15 minutes
Challenging ourselves to create a health and care model that looks and works differently – what can we learn for London?
2.25pm to 3.20pm	Plenary session and Q&A Dr Tim Spicer, Chair, Hammersmith & Fulham Clinical Commissioning Group and Dr Nicola Burbidge, Chair, Hounslow Clinical Commissioning Group Dr Craig Tanio, Chief Medical Officer, Chen Med	55 minutes
3.20pm to 3.35pm	Break	15 minutes
Parallel break-out sessions – where are the opportunities for leaders of health and care systems to bring about transformational change? Each session will run twice for 40 minutes.
3.35pm to 5.05pm	Payment innovation – Dr Philip Ozuah, Montefiore Health System; and John Wardell, Tower Hamlets Clinical Commissioning Group; Ric Marshall, Director of Pricing, Monitor Information – Dr Craig Tanio, Chen Med; Jeremy Martin, Symphony Project Workforce transformation – Julie Screatton, Health Education South London; and Lis Paice, North-West London Integrated Care Pilot Citizen empowerment and personalisation – Jay Stickland, London Borough of Greenwich; Jeremy Taylor, National Voices; and Helen Davies, patient perspective Children's services – Dr. Maggie Atkinson, Children's Commissioner for England; Geoff Little, Manchester City Council; and Ingrid Wolfe, Guy's & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust and King's College London	40 minute break-out sessions /discussions. Each will be run twice
What have we taken from today's insights that will strengthen London's approach to change? Interactive facilitated discussion and panel discussion
5.05pm to 5.45pm	Professor the Lord Ara Darzi Panel: Dr Howard Freeman, Chair, Merton Clinical Commissioning Group and London Clinical Commissioning Council Mark Turner, London Regional Director, Monitor Professor Yvonne Doyle, Regional Director (London region), Public Health England Martin Smith, Chief Executive, London Borough of Ealing and Chair of the London Health Chief Officers Group Dr Anne Rainsberry, Regional Director, NHS England (London region) Alistair Finney, Portfolio Director (North Central London & North East London), NHS Trust Development Authority (on behalf of Alwen Williams, Regional Director (London region))	40minutes
5.45pm to 6.15pm	Networking and drinks reception	30 minutes