

Hospital directory: List of hospitals within London taking urgent suspected cancer referrals

This is a list of hospitals within London taking urgent suspected cancer referrals. These contact details should be used by GPs and primary care healthcare professionals for urgent suspected cancer patient referrals only.

The Electronic Referral System (e-RS) is the preferred booking method for suspected cancer referrals. Only if e-RS is not available should you email the referral form to the relevant hospital contact using the directory below.

The information on this document is derived from e-RS. If you encounter problems contacting any of the services, please check on e-RS for the most up to date contact details.
