

Appendix D: Were you or someone you care for happy with the day and time of the appointment offered to you/them?

Not a complaint but the actual appointment was offered by letter and then changed and then changed again. I had the feeling that this side of the service was not so well organised.
As I have said - I have not been seen yet and not been given an appointment date - and I have been referred over 6 months ago
Not yet been offered an appointment
No appointments available for those working full time (after 6) Had to take time out of work
Please see above for brief details
I don't have an appointment
The care I am referring to is private. I didn't know that the NHS ofydental care.
I got there and was sent home and told to return 2 weeks later...I hadn't eaten properly for months because of it....I lost half a stone in weight
I am STILL waiting for an appointment !!!
Waiting for treatment
