

Child Health and Wellbeing Building a Structure to Enable Integrated Change - Getting System Engagement Right

Date	Monday 4th March 2019
Time	9.00am arrival for 9.30am start
Venue	Riverside Suite, Durham County Cricket Club, Emirates Riverside, Chester-le-Street, County Durham, DH3 3QR

Time	Item		Speakers
09.00 – 09.30	Arrival and Refreshments
	1	Open by Chair	Professor Chris Gray – Medical Director, NHSE Cumbria and the North East
	2	History and impact of poverty	Professor Sir Alan Craft, Paediatric Oncologist and Emeritus Professor of Child Health at Newcastle University
	3	The current state of child health & wellbeing across the North East and North Cumbria	Gill O’Neill – Deputy Director of Public Health, Durham County Council
	4	The British betrayal of children – what does this mean for the North East and North Cumbria?	Professor Sir Al Aynsley-Green, former first Children’s Commissioner for England
	5	System panel perspectives and Q&A	Professor Chris Gray – Medical Director, NHSE Cumbria and the North East
11.00 – 11.15	Refreshments
	6	Poverty and the child’s voice	Jeremy Cripps - CEO and Catrin Patterson – Practitioner, Children North East
	7	Can we grow our capacity? - Burning Ambition - Strong Ties/Weak Ties Table exercises and commitments to progress	Paul Mount – Transformational Change through System Leadership (ACT Academy), NHS Improvement
12.30 – 13.15	Lunch, and an opportunity to browse some innovation stands and the MELISSA training bus

	8	Our opportunity to make a difference though our network	Dr Mike McKean - Clinical Lead and Heather Corlett - Programme Manager
	9	The Network - what's in it for you?	Paul Mount – NHS Improvement
	10	System integration	Dr David Hambleton – CEO, NHS South Tyneside CCG
	11	West End Project: asset based intervention - a pilot study	Dr Alex Battersby - Consultant Paediatrician, NuTH and Samantha Robson – Headteacher, Bridgewater Primary School
	12	The voice of the child - plans for May 1 st regional event Commitments for action from today	Dr Mike McKean – Clinical Lead
	13	Final panel/speakers Q&A	Professor Chris Gray – Medical Director, NHSE Cumbria and the North East
16.00	Final comments and close – thank you		