Introduction to Appreciative Inquiry

Sarah Lewis
Appreciating Change
Today

- Getting Started
- Introduction to AI
- Discovery
- Story
- Positive Emotions
- Dreaming
- Strengths
- Design
- Destiny
Jackie Kelm video
Appreciative Inquiry: 5D Model

Discover and Value
‘the best of what is’

Define:
Affirmative Topic
Choice

Dreaming
‘What might be’

Design through Dialogue
‘What should be’

Destiny
‘What will be’
Principles

Positive emotions and images create sustainable energy for change

We see what we look for
We hear what we listen for

The inquiry is the intervention

The organization is patterns of belief, communication and relationship. Change them and you change the organization. Less a machine, more a book

The image of the future guides the current behaviour of the organization, bringing the future powerfully into the present.
What is Appreciative Inquiry?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Problem Solving</th>
<th>Appreciative Inquiry</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Problem Focus</td>
<td>Account Focus</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Solving the Past</td>
<td>Creating the Future</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Critical thinking and analysis</td>
<td>Generative thinking</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Planned solutions</td>
<td>Emergent ways forward</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Directed, organized</td>
<td>Facilitated, co-created</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fuelled by negative emotions</td>
<td>Fuelled by positive energy /relationships</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Negative Deviance</td>
<td>Positive Deviance</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weaknesses</td>
<td>Strengths</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Appreciative Inquiry

- Growth Oriented
- Future Focused
- Psychology of People
- Dynamics of Living Systems
- Reality as Stories and Narratives
- Strengths Based
- Whole System Intervention
A Discovery conversation

Group of five

Introduce yourselves, then

- Think of a situation where you have been working at your best and created change or had a positive impact. Where you really made a difference. Where you were fully engaged and using all your abilities to create something positive, and were successful. Something you can take pride in.

- Tell your colleagues about this. Just tell them the story of what’s happening, or happened and what makes you feel good about this particular event or incident.

- Colleagues to listen for the features of the situation that seemed to make this interaction/intervention both possible and successful. What was it about the bigger context that made a difference?
Reflection

Briefly discuss what has changed for you all in the last 15 minutes:

- Energy
- Mood
- Knowledge
- Feelings
- Relationships
A Discovery conversation

In new groups of five

Introduce yourselves, then

- Share something of the stories you heard in your group. What most impressed, inspired or awed you in what you heard?

- Once you have all had a chance to share, turn your thoughts to the factors that supported, created, allowed these moments of high positive impact. What themes do you notice of what makes a difference?

- Write your themes on a flip to share
Unheard Stories

Stories Lived

Storytelling

Stories Told

Unknown Stories

Stories Told
Influence on happiness

- Genes: 50%
- Circumstances: 10%
- Within our control: 40%

(Lyubomirsky, 2008)
Positive emotions exercise

Take a moment to share with a couple of colleagues a recent experience when you felt one of these emotions: Joy, Gratitude, Serenity, Interest, Hope, Pride, Amusement, Inspiration, Awe or Love

Describe what was happening

Describe the impact

Describe the feeling
Positive emotions are associated with many good things:

✓ creativity,
✓ sociability,
✓ flexible thinking,
✓ coping with complexity,
✓ good interpersonal relationships,
✓ motivation and tenacity,
✓ cognitive performance

Increased Engagement
The Power of the Positive Image: Dreaming

- Working in groups. Remember back to the best experiences you described earlier today.
- It’s 2021, ask each other ’How’s it going? What are you doing these days?’ Be interested and co-create the story.
- Create something using the materials here that expresses your positive images of the future in some way.
Creating Positivity: Diamond Feedback

- New groups of five
- Each tell a story of a recent success at work
- Listen with an appreciative ear, listen for strengths, resourcefulness, things to admire and appreciate
- Take turns to offer feedback on the personal strengths you heard in each others stories. Use strengths card packs to help you.
Performance effects of strengths

Optimal Performance

Potential

Fulfillment

Authenticity

Contribution

Goal Attainment

Energy

Morale

Growth

Engagement

Well-being

Motivation
Design and destiny

- Thinking about what we have done today
  - What needs to be different today to make good tomorrows more likely?

- How are you going to use this in your practice?
  - What are you inspired to do right now?
  - What aspirations do you have for the future?
  - What helps you be hopeful about your chances of incorporating some of this?

Share a specific commitment to action you can make today, and what you dream it will achieve for you