Dear [REDACTED]

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”)

I refer to your email of 26 October 2017 in which you requested information under the FOI Act from NHS Improvement. Since 1 April 2016, Monitor and the NHS Trust Development Authority are operating as an integrated organisation known as NHS Improvement. For the purposes of this decision, NHS Improvement means Monitor and the TDA.

Your request

You made the following request:

“Dear NHSI FOI Team - I write to make an FOI request for information on a keynote address to IHEEM’s Estates Conference, 10th – 11th October 2017, advertised as being by NHSI’s Simon Corben, Director and Head of Profession, NHS Estates and Facilities Efficiency and Productivity Division. I would welcome the information in the form of a copy of the powerpoint presentation or similar, if used, together with transcript of what was said and/or accompanying speakers notes. Thanks”.

Decision

NHS Improvement holds some of the information that you have requested and has decided to release all of the information that it holds.

Please note that NHS Improvement does not hold a transcript of the presentation or any accompanying speaker notes.

Review rights

If you consider that your request for information has not been properly handled or if you are otherwise dissatisfied with the outcome of your request, you can try to resolve this informally with the person who dealt with your request. If you remain dissatisfied, you may seek an internal review within NHS Improvement of the issue or the decision. A senior member of NHS Improvement's staff, who has not previously been involved with your request, will undertake that review.

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of any internal review, you may complain to the Information Commissioner for a decision on whether your request for information has been dealt with in accordance with the FOI Act.

A request for an internal review should be submitted in writing to FOI Request Reviews, NHS Improvement, Wellington House, 133-155 Waterloo Road, London SE1 8UG or by email to nhsi.foi@nhs.net.
