Subject: Off-payroll working in the private sector - Roundtable Sessions

At the Autumn Budget 2017 the government announced it would consult on how to tackle non-compliance with the off-payroll working rules in the private sector.

This consultation provides an early evaluation of the public sector reform, and invites responses on how best to tackle continuing non-compliance in the private sector.

The consultation will run from 18 May 2018 to 10 August 2018.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/consultations/off-payroll-working-in-the-private-sector>

As part of the consultation we are holding number of round table events to seek the views of our key stakeholders on the questions posed by the consultation and to hear any concerns.

We would like to invite you to a meeting on 4th June 2018 from 11:00 – 13:00 at our HMRC office, 100 Parliament Street, London, SW1A 2BQ.

Please reply by 30th May confirming whether or not you can attend.

Please note each event arranged will have limited capacity and requires an agreed invitee lists due to the security conditions at these events. In light of this we would ask that you do not forward this invitation to colleagues.

We would be grateful if you would share details of your priority concerns in advance, and we will aim to address these points on the day.

With regards

Off-payroll Working Team
