

10 Sensory Principles

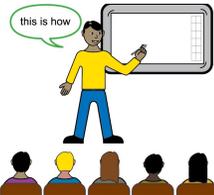

To help everyone have a better experience here

Create a predictable environment

Involve autistic people with relevant expertise in reviewing the sensory environment

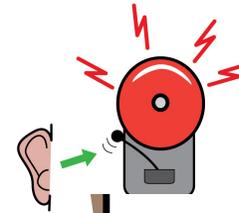

Ensure all staff have training from autistic experts

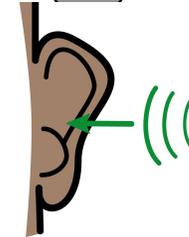

Assess everyone's sensory need on admission

Personalise risk management and decision making

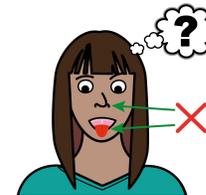

Swap alarms for 'silent' alarms

Reduce noise and echo

Change all fluorescent lighting for alternatives

Consider the impact of smells

Consider the impact of touch and texture